YOUR CRUISE

Discover the treasures of the Eastern Mediterranean with an exclusive Ponant itinerary.

Step aboard the Le Lyrial in Athens for an 8-day cruise around three famed seas: the Aegean, Ionian and Adriatic.

You will visit Mykonos. This is the 'Queen of the Cyclades', an island of white windmills, sinuous lanes and whitewashed buildings, with a small port where fishing boats and dinghies lazily bob at the foot of the terraces. Mykonos cannot fail to charm you.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Dubrovnik will charm you with its palaces, elegant buildings, cloisters and fountains. Located in Croatia's deep south, the Pearl of the Adriatic is a true gem.

You will also stop in Hvar. Its temperate, sunny climate has earned it the nickname 'The Croatian Madeira'. The old town nestled deep in the bay holds remarkable monuments that bear witness to its rich history.

FOCUS ON... DUBROVNIK

Emblem of the Dalmatian coast, Dubrovnik is magnificently positioned on a rocky spur. History is sovereign here, in this ancient city, now a listed UNESCO World Heritage site. You will perhaps be surprised by the proportions of La Placa, the central drag through the city. The sheer width of it can be explained by the fact that it straddles a former lagoon. The elegant houses along La Placa are built in the legendary travertine stone. At Pile gate, you will be greeted by the statue of the patron saint of Dubrovnik, and you can admire the coastline as you walk along the ramparts. But what's inside Fort Saint John, adjoining the outer walls? A maritime museum and an aquarium featuring rare fish from the Adriatic.
