YOUR CRUISE

In partnership with RADIO CLASSIQUE.

PONANT invites you to experience a musical cruise on the Mediterranean, run in partnership with Radio Classique with special guest Ruggero Raimondi.

Starting in Athens, step aboard Le Lyrial for an 8-day cruise between Greece and the majestic Italian coast.

After the visit of Patmos, you will sail to Santorini and its white villages ornamented with blue domes. In the South of the island, you can visit the ruins of the antique city of Akrotiri buried under volcanic ash.

Your cruise continues with a visit to Katakolon. On the slopes of Mt Cronion, you can enjoy the unique experience of visiting the UNESCO World Heritage listed Olympos archaeological site.

In a setting of vegetation and colourful tropical flowers, of bougainvilleas and oleanders, in the shadow of the snow-topped peak of Mount Etna, Taormina casts a spell over all its visitors.

FOCUS ON... NAPLES

More Italian than Italy itself, Naples is the capital of the beautiful region of Campania, and is an unusual city to say the least. Its gulf, dominated by Vesuvius, is one of the world's marvels. Built by the Greeks and then occupied by the Romans, the city has retained the memory of antiquity, as Castell dell'Ovo illustrates. But Naples has another side to it with its hustle and bustle, narrow streets, clothes hung out to dry at windows, Caravaggio paintings on the walls of a church, and incessant rumour in an sleepless city. This is a head-spinning city to visit and savour: don't forget to eat a slice of pizza Margherita.
