YOUR CRUISE

At the crossroads of the Atlantic and the Celtic Sea, set sail to discover a brand new Ponant itinerary.

From Honfleur, you will step aboard Le Boréal for a 9-day cruise to lands of legend and romance.

One port of call will be at the Isles of Scilly, a strange little archipelago where long sandy beaches stand alongside green fields, while ruins of old castles stand proud on hilltops.

Step ashore at Cobh, and take a trip to discover the picturesque village of Blarney - famous for its castle - and Kinsale - a charming little port sheltered within the Bandon Estuary.

Le Boréal will take you to Killybegs, a gateway to the city of Donegal. You will be captivated by its sheer cliffs, deserted sandy beaches, breathtaking scenery and welcoming pubs.

During your stopover in Belfast, you can visit the Giant's Causeway. This massive geological formation is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and features over 40,000 basalt columns.

FOCUS ON... SCILLY ISLANDS

Nestling in the clear waters of the Atlantic Ocean, at the south west tip of Cornwall, the Isles of Scilly form a small British island chain whose climate, landscapes and lifestyle are unlike any other and seem to have come straight from an Enid Blyton story. Here, everything resembles a tropical paradise. The long sandy beaches run alongside lush green meadows teeming with semi-exotic flowers, whilst the ruins of ancient castles loom from the tops of the hills. Veritable havens of peace that inspired the legendary Avalon of King Arthur, they are today listed as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the rugged coastline plays host to wildlife that is as varied as it is exceptional, including the very rare Atlantic grey seal.
